MOTOROLA SOLUTIONS

… Vladimir gave us high quality and creative options based on our design and wire frames. Because of the multiple options he developed for us, we were able to see the possibilities and develop the best user experience for our products. Vladimir went above and beyond on several occasions often giving us CSS code to implement the design, thus often accelerating our development cycles …

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK of ST. LOUIS

Regarding your work from the FRB of St. Louis
Hi Vladimir, I hope you are doing well.
The new Regional Data page went live last week.
We made a few tweaks to it regarding the data which is being populated.
I thought you might like to see it: https://research.stlouisfed.org/regecon/

BNY MELLON

… During his time with us, Vladimir demonstrated exceptional skill and expertise in various aspects of front-end development.
One of his standout achievements was the creation and maintenance of the ETF (Exchange-Traded Fund) UI Library, which proved to be an indispensable resource for our developers working on bank applications. His dedication to ensuring the library's usability, efficiency, and effectiveness greatly enhanced our development processes …
